GENERAL NOTICES

John & Barby Witt would like to thank everyone who has sent us their good wishes and prayers for John's speedy recovery following his quadruple heart bypass operation. It was a lovely surprise also to receive the beautiful church flowers. Your kindness and concern and love and good wishes have been greatly appreciated, and very helpful in an anxious time. John is progressing steadily a little each day and life is becoming a little easier now. He is able to take short walks now and hopes to build up his strength soon. We managed to attend the service which Neil took last Sunday, which was a real treat to be back.

Thankyou – on behalf of Joan I would like to thank everybody for the cards, visits and flowers. Joan is now home recovering from a stroke with extra care in place. Meanwhile thank you all for your thoughts and prayers. Ron Gelsthorpe

Winter Warmers Recipes – we have had a trickle of recipes for inclusion in our next cook book but would now like a flood, please! To meet our deadline of a print before Christmas, we really do need to be starting to collate these as soon as possible. If you have a recipe that you would like to share – soup, main course or pudding – any of the Project group would be very happy to receive them. Many thanks.

Remembrance Sunday – for Remembrance Sunday we are going to have a small display with flowers in the Chancel to remember the people in whose memory the chancel window was erected. In addition we will have a little information about each of them. There will be other people in the congregation who have friends or relatives who have served in the armed forces either in a war or in peacetime. If you would like them to be remembered please let me know and we will decorate one of the side window sills in their memory. It would be helpful to have some brief details of their service. Sue Wittrick

Traidcraft are ceasing trading at the end of the year so please stock up at the coffee mornings between now and Christmas.

Oberammergau – there is a poster on the noticeboard regarding a visit to Oberammergau. If you are interested please note the details.

Quiet time is starting up again on Thursday 8th November at 10.00am. The first will be a sharing time when favourite/interesting/moving writings from hymn books, magazines or other literature can be shared with the group. Quiet time is for anyone who likes a quieter, more reflective time and lasts for about 30 minutes followed by coffee if wanted. The rota is on the notice board if you feel able to take a turn leading. Anyone is welcome.
